

Mr. Stig Borgvang, Water Resources Management Specialist, stig.borgvang@niva.no, tel +47 98227730

Position at NIVA: Research Manager

Mr Borgvang has a M.Sc. in Environmental Sciences (1987). He is a research scientist at NIVA. He worked for the Norwegian Pollution Control Authority for 3 years, and 6 years for the OSPAR-COM secretariat in London, where he co-ordinated the joint European work towards a cleaner North Sea. At present he is managing the EuroHarp project involving several European countries. He has a broad experience working with Water Resources Management, Pollution Abatement Analysis, Best Available Technology, Best Environmental Practice, Co-ordination and assessment of national and international chemical and biological monitoring programmes in freshwater systems and in marine waters, Environmental Action Programmes, National Environmental Action Plans, Experience of organising specialist conferences/meetings on issues related to management of surface waters. He is fluent in English, French and Spanish. He has worked in Norway, Russia, China, Lithuania, United Kingdom, OSPAR-countries and Poland.